

VOLUNTEER TRUSTEE

Simon on the Streets are looking for flexible and committed volunteers to join the charities board of trustees.

What does it mean to be a Trustee of Simon on the Streets?

We are a small independent charity that does rely on the Board of Trustees playing an active and engaging role. We do currently have a diverse Board of Trustees but we are looking to add skills and experience in the following areas:

- Experience of fund application writing and/or access to charitable foundations and grant funding
- Experience of charity fund-raising through events and other income streams
- Someone with a strong sense of the mission and values of the charity who can support in developing the culture and underpinning the ethos of the charity's values and mission
- Some who has charitable sector experience specifically in relation to homelessness, adult mental health, substance abuse or any other area pertinent to the charity
- An individual with financial experience of financial reporting, forecasting and budgeting and contributing to the future strategy of the Charity
- Somebody with great social media skills who can support with our marketing and brand strategy

What personal attributes are we looking for?

- Integrity
- A commitment to the organisation and its objectives
- A willingness to devote the necessary time and effort to their duties as a trustee
- Strategic vision
- Independent judgment
- Willingness to speak openly and honestly but also listen to others points of views
- An ability to work effectively as a member of a team

What are the benefits of this role to you as volunteer?

- Create an impact in your local community by utilizing your existing skills and experience
- Learn about the strategy and management of a small charity
- Develop your leadership and collaboration skills
- The experience will boost your CV and may be helpful in opening new career paths

To apply for this role please contact trustees@simononthestreets.co.uk.
