

Volunteer Community Advocate

Do you fancy a challenge whilst helping in your local community? Simon on the Streets is a community based charity which depends heavily on the support of its community. We are currently searching for passionate and enthusiastic individuals to form and lead local fundraising groups around West Yorkshire. Teams of volunteer fundraisers will meet up on a regular basis to think of fun and interesting ways to raise funds and awareness for the charity.

Main Responsibilities Include:

- Speaking to local community groups about our work and homelessness within West Yorkshire
- Promoting and supporting Simon on the Streets ran events and collections
- Attending volunteer community advocate meetings
- Running independent fundraisers within the community

Time Commitment:

- The role is flexible, requiring a small-time commitment of one to two evenings a month and doesn't require any previous volunteering experience.

Training and Support:

We will support you in your role as a volunteer by offering you:

- A place in the heart of our team
- An induction and volunteer training
- Further opportunities for free training
- A friendly contact for any of questions or queries
- Invitations to Simon on the Streets' events

Benefits:

- A chance to gain valuable experience and develop yourself personally and professionally
- An opportunity to give back and make a difference to your community
- Great opportunity to meet new people and develop your teamworking skills

To apply for this role please contact fiona@simononthestreets.co.uk.